(1)

Dear Mrs. Llanos

Aberdeen
15/10/83.

Just at the last moment I am sorry put to it for a few dates that I thought would have been easy enough to get. I send you a separate paper which I should be much obliged by your returning with such remarks ~~filled~~ as you can supply filled up, by possible return of post.

By the by, I have not yet received your life certificate, I fear it may have been lost in the post again.

~~Enclosed please find my~~

PS

~~A.B.~~

J

John Keats to Mrs. Charles Wylie and Mrs. Isabella Jones, 31 October 1819

(2)

I cannot rest without saying that I am as perfect as my powers & opportunities permit; & that I am not entirely destitute of that spirit, those & feel the full force of the final couplet in Keats's first book of Poems —

"and hereafter thy loftiest theme
Heaven shall be, as of a father
Believe me
dear Mrs Wylie
Your always most sincere

Dates

John Keats born

George Keats Jr. born

Thomas Keats born

Fanny Keats born

Keats, father of the above-named, died 15 April 1804

Keats, mother of the above-named, died

John Keats went to Mr. Clarke's school at Enfield

Sept. papers day month year

Your brother George born

Your brother Tom born

Yourself born

Your father born

Your mother born

Your mother died

Your father's full name

Your mother's full name

If you cannot give exact dates give just what you can, this with the, state the distance in age between John, George, Tom, Yourself.

5 Calle de Lista
Barrio de Salamanca
Madrid Octr 18th
[1883]

My dear Mr Ferman

I am exceedingly sorry that I am unable to fill up the blanks, from an unfortunate circumstance When we came to Spain, all our boxes were seized as contraband by the Custom house Officers, and were never returned, though there were several Royal orders to the effect

Among my books, was the family Bible, in which were registered the births and deaths of all the family, from my Grandfather downwards.

Jem was born November 13th and I should think was six years older than myself

I was born June 5th 1804

Of George's age, I have no idea, nor can I say when my father and mother